COX RETIRES

From Governorship—Given Fat Check For Well-Earned Services

FRANKFORT, Ky., June 29th.—Acting Governor Cox laid down the reins of office this afternoon, for Governor Willson is expected back tomorrow after his trip East. Governor Cox left on the 4:30 Louisville and Nashville train for his home at Maysville, where he will spend a day or so before leaving for a little trip East himself, taking in Atlantic City and other resorts to recuperate from his fifteen days of hard work keeping down the lid for Governor Willson.

State Treasurer Edward Farley turned over to Governor Cox a check for $267 this afternoon for his services, remarking that some of the boys said that that was a pretty big sum to pay a "baseball player." The Governor thought it a good joke and laughed heartily. Secretary of State Bruner remarked that as Governor Cox had gotten credit for bringing in the winning run in the game last week, he ought to be worth that much as a ball player.

FOR PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM H. TAFT,
of Ohio.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
JAMES S. SHERMAN, of New York.

FOR CONGRESS,
Hon. JOSEPH B. BENNETT.

THERE will be no sun spots this summer. With the sun spots gone, to what solar cause can we lay all the cosmic mishaps?

DOES our Governor WILLSON want to boost the good roads proposition so that he can have quicker means of exit from the State?

BRADLEY of Kentucky shows every earmark of proving a cantankerous cuss when he takes his place in the Senate.—Chicago Journal.

MAYBE Governor WILLSON keeps out of Kentucky as much as possible because the Legislature refused to build that new Governor's Mansion.

WELL, well. JOHN WESLEY GAINES, the Tennessee Congressman who thought he knew it all, has gone to the scrap pile, along with CARMACK, HOKE SMITH, et al. JOHN WESLEY was defeated for renomination in the Nashville District.

THERE are several degrees of Prohibition, and its devotees are now splitting hairs on the question and we will soon have as many scisms, sects and societies as we have in religion. This may be the very undoing of the temperance cause. To get the best results all parties should get together on the main issue, and that would tell in a few years.

AFTER the November election we may look for a column or two from Marse HENRY on "The Charge of the Black Brigade."

THE entire deficit of the States forming the German Empire now amounts to over $3,000,000,000, while that of France is nearly $6,000,000,000.

THE proud "boid of freedom" is not soaring very high in old Kentucky this Anno Domini, when the festive night rider gallops in and prevents the honest landowner from exercising his birthright of planting what he pleases on his own land.

Hot weather don'ts:

Don't hurry.

Don't worry.

Don't eat too much.

Don't drink too much.

Did you ever try taking things easy?

You might get the habit. It don't cost you anything.

JUDGE TAFT is not a political tactician; he is a statesman; a man with a heart as well as an intellect; one who will do things in a straight, clean, honest way; who will endeavor to make the country great and the people happy. It is hard to conceive of a man who possesses more of the qualities of a true leader or one better equipped to meet the emergencies of the future than Judge TAFT. The Republican party can unite on that proposition and take up the cause of his election with enthusiasm and gladness.—Ohio State Journal.

A HEAVENLY TIP.

Louisville Times.

At least one man has made a contribution to a band of colored Salvation Army workers for which he will get no credit. The colored band works along Green street and through the Negro district.

One of the hand—she tinkles on the tambourine—is said to be very attractive. One man thought so, at any rate. When he saw her he said to himself, "Methinks I'll make a contribution."

He dropped a $5 bill into her tambourine. As he did so he said to her, "I would like to talk to you; where may I meet you?"

"In heaven," replied the girl, five-dollar bill in hand.

IN TRAINING

THE girl with the long eyelashes helped herself to another piece of chocolate fudge. "He was the most unsentimental man I ever met," she said, with decision. "And therefore dull," put in the girl who was sitting on the floor just because she liked it. "Not in the least," objected the young woman with the long eyelashes. "Refreshing instead! And I could experiment with him and yet be tolerably sure he was not going to be a bother and make love to me. We got well acquainted the evening he told me all about his broken heart and blighted life."

"What was he doing with those things if he was unsentimental?" demanded the girl on the floor.

"I'm just quoting his estimate of his own emotions," explained the girl with the long eyelashes. "In reality, he wouldn't have known a broken heart from a house and lot, but he seemed to extract a mournful joy from imagining that he possessed one. He referred to it jestingly, but you could tell he was as proud of it as if it had been a gold medal or $1,000,000 he had made himself, and wanted to be admired for having it."

"He began," explained the girl with the long eyelashes, "by saying he had had such an unhappy experience just before he came to Chicago. Then he explained that his best girl had suddenly married another man."

"That was too bad," sympathized, lamely.

"It was a blow," he admitted. "I was mighty fond of that girl. Of course I had not been to see her very frequently of late because I had a big contract on hand and couldn't waste the time; besides, I didn't think it was necessary. I thought she understood my feelings and, anyhow, I supposed she'd last for another year without saying anything."

"Well!" gasped the girl sitting on the floor. "Well! Hadn't he even proposed to her?"

"I couldn't quite make out what he called it," said the girl with the long eyelashes. "He seemed to think the fact that he had given her what spare time he could snatch from the really important business of life, such as contracts and golf, should have aroused fluttering hopes in her heart sufficient to cause her to hang on patiently in trusting anticipation of something better."

"He hadn't really asked her outright to marry him, but he said in a grievous sort of way—can you imagine a man who weighs 200 looking grieved?—that he had supposed she understood."

"Oh, he really was hopeless! So I agreed with him. I said it was awful the way some girls trifled with the affections of a man and that most of them never knew one minute what they wanted the next, and that lack of stability was the great flaw in the character of the modern American woman!"

"Well!" gasped the girl on the floor in helpless rapture. "Did you really? Did he tell you that you were like the rest of them?"

The girl with the long eyelashes smiled. "I should say not!" she replied. "He looked at me admiringly and said I had common sense and he wished there were more like me. Then he modified it on second thought and said he was glad there weren't more like me and that he was selfishly rejoiced that I was the only one of my kind and that he had found me."

"That sounds as if he were a little bit sentimental," argued her friend.

"Not in that kind of man," said the girl with the long eyelashes. "His joy on discovering my charming attributes was precisely what he would have bestowed on a bargain in a ten-acre lot or on a clever deal in wheat. He went on to say that the more he considered the tragedy which had overtaken him the more bright spots in the dark clouds were to be discovered. He said such a slight disposition as that girl had shown argued that she would be the sort to stay late to afternoon card parties and forget to be home at dinner time to welcome her husband."

"I responded that any true woman was perfectly content to stay at home all day, dreaming of her husband when her attention was not otherwise engaged in preparing mayonnaise dressing or darning his socks—and he at once asked me to go to the theater."

"Over the supper later he discovered that my eyes were as blue as hers whom he had lost, only more so. He said they had a more intelligent expression also. In a short time I had to drag him back on the subject of his sorrow by main force. He—he seemed more anxious to talk of other things!"

"I'm!" commented the girl seated on the floor. "I know you! Haven't you any mercy at all? A poor, innocent, practical, unsentimental man like that, who can't play up to the game! You ought to be ashamed of yourself!"

The girl with the long eyelashes laughed. "Serves him right!" she said. "There are several things that man needs to learn! I'm just getting him ready for his next girl!"

"Well, I'm sorry for him," said the girl on the floor, with emphasis.

A SPECIAL EXHIBIT OF ZOLIUM TILE ROOFING

On MONDAY, JULY 6th, All Day

Because of the great interest in this remarkable tile roofing, we have arranged with the manufacturers for an elaborate and complete exhibit on above date.

The interesting principle of ZOLIUM, which transforms long, impenetrable sheets of bonded fibre into diamond shaped tiles, will be graphically explained by full sized models.

ZOLIUM is the logical successor of shingles, as it is superior in every way—more durable, more attractive and a splendid fire protection.

Architects, contractors and prospective builders are invited to attend this exhibit.

One of the most delightful social functions of the season was the barn dance given by Mrs. James H. Hall of West Third street Monday evening, complimentary to her charming guest, Miss Gertrude Sledd of Shelbyville, Ky. The handsome Hall residence, resplendent with many lights, was fittingly decorated for the occasion. The belles and beaux were charming and never appeared to a more splendid advantage.

Among the invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. John I. Winter, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Merritt, Mrs. John H. Hall, Misses Sledd, Shelbyville; Perry, Mt. Sterling; Jonett, Winchester; Andrews, Flemingsburg; Pattie Carr, Lucy Baldwin, Eliza Kirk, Scottie Worthington, Ethel Rice, Elizabeth Adamson, Sallie Milton Hall and Hilda Threlkeld; Mooers, John D. Keith, John Fitzgerald, Alec Parker, Hutton Hall, Harry Purnell, Roy Nelson, Frank Owens, Oddie Early, Woodie Owens, Robert Allison, James Threlkeld, Robert Hoeflich, Dudley Quaintance, W. C. Conyell, Isaac Chancelor and Ross Owens.

Miss Sledd, the guest of honor, was gowned in a creation of white satin; Miss Jonett, pink flowered net; Miss Perry, white silk, yellow trimmings; Miss Andrews, blue silk.

In the spacious dining-rooms the color scheme of pink and green was successfully carried out. Delicious refreshments were served, after which the dance continued until the " wee small hours." The good nights were spoken, the guests left, all pronouncing Mrs. Hall a most charming hostess.

Our Colored Citizens.

Mrs. Hattie Anderson was elected organist of the Consolidated Baptist Educational Sunday-school Convention, which has been in session at Mt. Sterling for a few days. Noting the meeting the correspondent of The Lexington Leader says:

"Rev. R. B. Butler, A. M., conducted devotional exercises at the evening session, after which Rev. J. F. Drane of Maysville was introduced as the speaker of the house. He had been appointed to deliver the educational sermon. Rev. Drane acquitted himself like a man and preached a most powerful sermon, which brought applause from the entire congregation. Among the things the speaker said was that each Christian should make practical use of an opportunity and forsake the ways of wickedness, selfishness and accept the ways and mind of God."

"President Galvin spoke of the work of James Monday of Maysville, a young man who was given a normal education by this body and who is now in Chicago engaged in the mail service, making his mark in the world, of whom we all feel proud."

"Miss Frances Strawder also made some impressive remarks on the simple plans of teaching primary classes in the Sunday-school. Miss Strawder convinced the Convention of her ability and experience as a teacher and a student of the Bible."

There were 1,363 visitors to the Public Library last month and 824 books were taken out.

Mrs. Shriver will return to her home in Portsmouth, Ohio, this afternoon, after a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Jacob Cabbish. The latter will accompany her mother to Portsmouth for a month's visit.

The work of plastering the new Catholic Church in Limestone street is one of the most stupendous jobs of the kind ever undertaken in this city. Two carloads of lumber were utilized in the scaffolding, the big framework taking up the entire space in the spacious interior of the building. A force is now engaged, and it will require about six weeks to complete the plastering.

The other day a reckless automobile driver came down Market street with a full head of steam on, and as he passed a double team of horses attached to a carriage standing in the street opposite Hoeflich's drygoods store the animals became so frightened that the young man in the vehicle was unable to hold them. They began kicking and plunging and had it not have been for the heroic action of Mr. Lee Dinger, who at great personal danger caught the frantic horses by the bridle and prevented their running off, there undoubtedly would have been a smash up and somebody badly hurt, if not killed.

WALKER.

A young blacksmith arrived at the residence of Charles Walker, East Second street, yesterday morning. Weight 10 pounds.

Women Inclined To Constipation

Great Care Should Be Taken Not to Use Violent Cathartics

Women, owing to their peculiar functions, are more or less liable to constipation and many of them owe their continued ill health to the pill habit. A well known physician lays the majority of cases of foul breath, bad complexion, disordered stomach, sick headache and female weakness to constipation and the constant use of violent cathartics to overcome it.

We believe women will be glad to learn of a safe reliable bowel and stomach remedy that is pleasant to take and that the first few doses will certainly produce natural daily movements without pain or gripe and in a short time establish a permanent cure. It is so effective it has cured cases of 60 years' standing and yet so mild and safe thousands of mothers give it to their babies. Jennie Gresham, Nashville, Tenn., says: "I suffered almost death with torpid liver and indigestion and Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin gave me quick relief." Sister M. Berchmans, of Mt. St. Mary's Academy, Oklahoma City, says: "We have found Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin satisfactory as a gentle laxative and stomach tonic." Mrs. Myrtle Mather, Chicago, says: "My daughter was troubled since birth with constipation and sick headache. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin cured her."

Mrs. W. M. Powers, New Philadelphia, Ohio, says: "It is the best remedy for constipation and stomach trouble I have ever used." Mrs. R. H. Brown, Addington, Okla., says it gave her prompt relief from constipation and torpid liver. Mrs. Isabella Wheeler, Freetown, Ind., says: "Twenty-three years ago I was taken with stomach trouble. Three years ago I had become so weak I could hardly walk. I took Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and today am as well as ever." Druggists sell it at 50c and $1.00 per bottle.

We are glad to send a free sample to anyone who has not used it and will give it a fair trial. Address Pepsin Syrup Co., 384 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill.

Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; likewise out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 7c.

DEEDS NOT WORDS.
Maysville People Have Absolute Proof of Deeds at Home.

It's not words but deeds that prove true merit.
The deeds of Doan's Kidney Pills For Maysville kidney sufferers Have made their local reputation. Proof lies in the testimony of Maysville people who have been cured to stay cured.

William H. Paul, 333 East Third street, Maysville, Ky., says:
"My opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills has not changed since I first recommended them several years ago, and the statement I gave in their favor at that time still holds good. Before I learned of their merit I was bothered considerably by pains in my back and other symptoms of disordered kidneys. After doctoring unsuccessfully I was induced to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial, procuring them at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore. They promptly and effectively cured me, and I did not have a return of the difficulty until a short time ago. At that time I again resorted to Doan's Kidney Pills, and, as in the first case, they thoroughly removed every sign of the trouble."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Mr. W. H. Ryder's condition remains about the same.
At Bowling Green a monster mass meeting was held and an effort will be made to enforce the local option law which is being flagrantly violated.

Did You Ever
Stop to think that if you personally selected the cloth for your own garments you would look different from the mass and file you meet, and that if this cloth were cut to your own measure, and skillfully and honestly tailored by hand, you would have clothes that fit you more perfectly and give you better service than the clothing worn by the masses? Think it over, then have us make you a suit from the cloth and fashion you like best; you will then understand what real merchant tailoring is. The cost is not so high as you think, and the value given. Suits to order $18 to $40.

Rings Round Eyes
J-19-

The pills peculiar to women, take different forms. Some ladies suffer, every month, from dark rings round their eyes, blotches on their skin and tired feeling. Others suffer agonies of pain, that words can hardly express. Whatever the symptoms, remember there is one medicine that will go beyond mere symptoms, and act on the cause of their troubles, the weakened womanly organs.
Wine of Cardui
Mrs. M. C. Austin, of Memphis, Tenn., writes: "For five (5) years I suffered with every symptom of female disease, but after using the well-known Cardui Home Treatment, I was entirely well."
